INTRODUCE THE LEGACY OF WILLIAM MORRIS
INTO YOUR HOME

William Morris (1834-1896), artist, philosopher and political theorist, was one of the most outstanding and influential designers of the Arts & Crafts Movement.

His legacy continues today with Morris & Co., curating beautifully crafted fabrics, wallpapers and home accessories inspired by his original designs.

The Morris & Co. range of hand-tufted rugs translates some of Morris' most renowned and iconic designs; these timeless rugs are offered in his distinctive and unique colour palette and will add a touch of heritage to any home.

INSPIRED BY THE LOVE BETWEEN FRIENDS
AND THE LEGACY OF A TRULY HISTORIC HOME,
MORRIS & CO. LAUNCH A COLLABORATION
COLLECTION WITH EMERY WALKER'S HOUSE

Sir Emery Walker (1851-1933) and William Morris (1834-1896) had a relationship that bore seemingly endless fruit. With Walker's industry expertise as a noted typographer, Morris established the Kelmscott Press for book printing, a feat scholars refer to as Morris's final triumph. Living a mere stroll away from one another in Hammersmith – and visiting each other almost every day – Walker also collaborated with and supported Morris in the other great passions of their lives.

In a gesture of friendly loyalty, Walker decorated his house almost entirely with Morris & Co. furnishings. To this day, 7 Hammersmith Terrace remains one of the largest repositories of original in situ Morris & Co. designs anywhere in the world. The incredible preservation of the house is due largely to the efforts of Sir Emery's daughter, Dorothy, her friend and co-habitant, Elizabeth de Haas, and, since taking over stewardship of the house in 1999, Emery Walker's House Trust.

This collection marks a moment to be celebrated by William Morris fans across the world. At once a tender recognition of past friendships and lovingly decorated homes, this collection offers something fresh and reawakened for every lover of interiors.

B&C

At Brink & Campman we make collections of thoughtfully designed premium rugs. Brink & Campman has over 125 years of experience doing so. The craft of rug making means that no two rugs are exactly alike. The natural materials used in a handcrafted product might cause deviations in colour, texture or size.

This brochure has been created with great care. We make allowance for a degree of colour variation and cannot be held responsible for any printing errors or changes in the collection.
